CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

The 23rd International Forging Congress (IFC) will showcase the best in forging technical and business-oriented presentations for the worldwide forging community. The conference seeks presentations in all areas of forging industry research and technology including the topics described on the next page.

Presentations should have a technical focus with minimal advertising content.

For more information or questions, contact:
Forging Industry Association
1111 Superior Ave., Suite 615
Cleveland, OH 44114
Tel: 216-781-6260

www.forging.org

Angela Gibian, Manager of Events
angela@forging.org
216-781-6260

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Individuals interested in presenting a technical or applied industrial-focused presentation at the conference must submit the following information in English by September 30, 2019 to www.surveymonkey.com/r/IFC2020 for the Technical Presentation Subcommittee’s review and consideration:

• Presentation Title
• Abstract (100 words or more)
• Presenter Name and Title
• Company Name, Address, Phone, Fax and Email

Authors of accepted presentations are expected to present their work at the conference. Technical and applied industrial-focused presentation length is 20 minutes with 5 minute Q & A.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Notification of Acceptance: November 2019
Draft Presentation Submission Due: August 3, 2020
Notification of Presentation Edits: September 3, 2020
PRESENTATION TOPICS

While all abstracts will be considered, presentations on the following topics would be of considerable interest:

1. Forging Equipment
2. Plant Productivity
3. Heat Processing & Treatment
4. Materials
5. Tooling
6. Software
7. Material Handling
8. Automation
9. Industry 4.0 (IIoT)
10. Maintenance
11. Product Design
12. Light weighting
13. Alternative Technologies
14. Electrification (Transportation & Renewables)