HOW CAN THE FOUNDATION HELP YOU? What are your points of pain? During the course of the conference, there will be opportunities to share industry problems/concerns and find potential partners to work together to address these issues. Please share three areas where technical research and/or workforce development partnerships could address issues you face in your plant. Replies will be collected, posted during the conference and will form the topics of a luncheon roundtable session. Please reply and come to the conference ready to find a solution!
